Mountain Valley Hospice Names Heidi College as Volunteer Services Manager

(Mt. Airy, NC) Mountain Valley Hospice & Palliative Care has named Heidi College as Volunteer Services Manager.

"Heidi will be instrumental in building back our volunteer program to the level of activity we had prior to the pandemic", noted Sara Tavery, Senior Director of Philanthropy at Mountain Valley. "She is passionate about hospice volunteers, and the services they provide to our patients and their families."

Prior to joining Mountain Valley Hospice in October 2021, Heidi spent over five years with Trellis Supportive Care as a Volunteer Coordinator and more recently as a Service Care Advocate.

Heidi's responsibilities include leading the Volunteer Services team in the recruitment, training, and management of volunteers, while exploring opportunities for increased volunteer engagement which is vital to the hospice mission.

Heidi attended Forsyth Technical College. She is a member of the Piedmont Regional Association of Volunteer Administration (PRAVA).

ABOUT MOUNTAIN VALLEY HOSPICE & PALLIATIVE CARE

Mountain Valley Hospice & Palliative Care is a nonprofit organization providing high quality end-of-life care in 18 counties in North Carolina and Virginia. Through its team of hospice professionals and specially trained volunteers, Mountain Valley Hospice addresses the growing need for compassionate hospice care through offices in Mount Airy, Yadkinville, Elkin, and Pilot Mountain, NC; and in Hillsville; and Martinsville VA. Mountain Valley Hospice also owns and operates two hospice inpatient facilities: The Joan & Howard Woltz Hospice Home in Dobson, NC, and the SECU Hospice Care Center in Yadkinville, NC. Both offer a homelike setting for patients and families alike. The goal for both facilities is to help families be as comfortable as possible as they stay close by their loved one during this time when families are needed most.
