

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact:

Pam Cook

Pam Cook Communications

336-416-4831

pcook@aol.com

Media Announcement

Mountain Valley Hospice's Dr. Golaszewski Recognized!

Mount Airy, NC– On August 8th Teleios Collaborative Network (TCN) announced the inaugural recipients of the "Care As It Should Be" Award during the Visioneering Council Meeting.

The purpose of the "Care As It Should Be" Award is to recognize those individuals who make an extraordinary impact on the patients and families who they serve daily.

Each TCN Member Organization was encouraged to nominate staff members who they felt elevated patient care. This year, Mountain Valley Hospice & Palliative Care is proud to announce Dr. Glenn Golaszewski, MD, as an award winner.

Each person will receive a crystal plaque etched award along with a monetary gift. The monetary award may be used to further their education or to celebrate with their team members.

Teleios Collaborative Network (TCN) is a nonprofit organization that has created a clinically integrated network that shares expert leadership, industry best practices, and resources with its member organizations, allowing community- based, nonprofit hospice and palliative care agencies to continue their work of providing compassionate care for those facing serious illness or the end of life. TCN was founded in 2017 by Four Seasons and Carolina Caring and co-founded by AMOREM and Mountain Valley Hospice & Palliative Care organizations. TCN is currently comprised of twelve member organizations and serves in North Carolina, Virginia, Louisiana, Texas, Idaho, and Utah.

Mountain Valley Hospice & Palliative Care is a nonprofit organization providing high quality end-of-life care in 18 counties in North Carolina and Virginia. Through its team of hospice professionals and specially trained volunteers, Mountain Valley Hospice addresses the growing need for compassionate hospice care through offices in Mount Airy, Yadkinville, Elkin, and Pilot Mountain, NC; and in Hillsville; and Martinsville VA. Mountain Valley Hospice also owns and operates two hospice inpatient facilities: The Joan & Howard Woltz Hospice Home in Dobson, NC, and the SECU Hospice Care Center in Yadkinville, NC. Both offer a homelike setting for patients and families alike. The goal for both facilities is to help families be as comfortable as possible as they stay close by their loved one during this time when families are needed most. For more information, visit www.mtnvalleyhospice.org .