Mountain Valley unveils Pond Love water feature donation by Pond Country

Pond Love Event: Pond Country, LLC Donates to hospice home in Dobson, NC

Dobson, NC Mountain Valley, a hospice and palliative care organization, is excited to announce a water feature donation from Pond Country, LLC. An unveiling of the new water feature was held on April 16 at the Joan and Howard Woltz Hospice Home in Dobson, NC. This generous contribution reflects Pond Country's commitment to fostering love and support within the community by sharing their love of water.

"This amazing water feature is one of the first things our visitors and family members see as they enter the hospice home," said Tracey Dobson, president and CEO of Mountain Valley. "The calming sounds of water trickling over rocks and sculptures give a sense of peace and tranquility at what may be one of the most delicate times in their lives. We are truly grateful for Pond Country's generosity."

"At Pond Country, we believe in the power of unity and love within our community," said Joe Phagan, owner of Pond Country. "Hospice plays a crucial role in our community, providing comfort and care during challenging times. Through our Pond Love program, we are honored to contribute to their invaluable work."

Pond Love is an annual event that is dedicated to celebrating Pond Country's connections and compassion with water. This year, Mountain Valley was chosen as the recipient to extend the spirit of Pond Love beyond the realm of water, demonstrating this organization's dedication to supporting essential community services.
